RECALLS PART PLAYED BY BOY DETACHMENT IN WAR OF '61-'65

RICHMOND YOUTHS AID IN ROUT OF DAHLGREN

Raider Was in Command of Troop of Desperate Adventurers, Ordered to Enter City, Release Prisoners, Burn Town and Kill President and Cabinet.

toward their temporary headquarters with the youngsters of the Rotary Boys Club around on Twelfth Street.

How Lee Looked to Him.

How Lee Looked to Him,
"I can't help thinking how General Lee looked to me," Captain Taylor reflected. "I was just standing out there in the road near Fort Harrison, with the dust of strife all over my clothes, and with thoughts of impending onslaught, and I was just about as hig as that little fellow ever there, marching so proudly as a Roy was in command of a troop of des-perate adventurers, who were order-ed to enter the city re-ease the pris-opers on Belle Isle burn the city and kill the President and his Capinat-Had that horde of maranders ever gotten above Rocketts, there would have been rapine and murder and arson amblents.

WILL RADIUM AT LAST

Well and Reep Well write for literature that tells flow and why this almost unknown and wonderful new element brings relief to so many early ferers from Constitution literature tism, Sciatica, Gout Nearlis Noural gia, Nervous Prostration, High Hood Pressure and diseases of the stomach, Heart, Lunge, Liver kilnes and other aliments. You was beginned as and night, receiving the Radio-Active Rays continuously into your system, causing a healthy circulation over coming sluggishness, thowing of impurities and restoring the tissues and nerves to a normal condition. Sold on a test proposition. You are thoroughly satisfied it is helping you before the appliance is youre. Nothing the doubt the appliance is that it is within the reach of all, both rich and poor.

No matter how had your aliment, or how long standing we will to pleased to have you try it at our risk, For full information write today—not tomorrow. Radium Appliance Co., 255 Bradbury Bidg., Los Angeles, Calif.—Adv.

(By Harry Tucker.)
Colonel G. Percy Hawes and Captain Charles F. Taylor stood beneath the awning at Eighth and Broad Streets well-known members of the company awning at Eighth and Broad Streets as the troop of Norfolk Boy Scouts marched by. The youngsters were in fine mettle, and swept along like regulars on dress parade. A crowd of unsentimental folks stood along the cure, and in silence and with not a sign of emotion permitted the troopers to swing by.

Colonel Hawes looked at Captain Taylor. No word passed, but the two old tanned veterans understood that look, and a "Rebel yell" that one could have heard for a half mile on a still night rang along Broad Street.

had been recognized and had been ernor Trinkle. I am not taking any banded the glad welcome.

"Minds you of something, hey, bunch of Franklin Street Cars. Percy"

Cert'n'ly does, Charlie."

The two old cronies looked across the street. But they saw nothing in that crowd of movie fans wading in the cach other for vantage places in the long line. Their thoughts in the long line.

OF LIBRARY BUILDING

out as hig as that little fellow ever and extend through the following ere, marching so proudly as a Boy out.

Tuesday. The first formal event will be the laying of the corner-stone of "The general comes galloping up he road, the dust a-scattering, and mony at 5 o'clock Saturday afterold Traveller in all his glory. As a got near me I started to call his Washington and FrankHin Literary stitention to the fact that he was discreties will have an intersociety regarding all the rules of civilized debate, in connection with which the warfare by making all that dust and college Glee Club will furnish a mu-e, but I hadn't jost any of the ve that had been injected into when we turned old Dahigren's will be started. In the affet. at 4 o'clock, the annual ad-before the Society of Alumui ad."

"I bet the General laughed," com- will be delivered by J. D. Hank, '95, assistant attorney-general of Virt so, too. He more than ile guffinwed. He made me I could have bit a bullet in fut I held my temper, and teller trotted on to headquarding me in a few minutes I found t General Lee, himself, had iding me live to be a hundred, added tain. "Ill never forget that onversation. It wasn't so that he said, but the tone different from what I had I would have thought he live to the said, but the tone different from what I had I would have thought he summit in the presidents home.

Corporal John B. Paris. Charles Williamson DR. CHANDLER FAVORS EDUCATION SECRETARY

Mrs. MARY S. MeCONN

HONOR VALOR OF SOUTH WITH BATTLEFIELD PARK

Campaign for $1,500,000 to Make Manassas Real National Shrine.

The battlefield will be purchased, a museum will be constructed; walks, streets and roads will be laid out; markers, memorials and monument toric spots adjacent to Manassas.

The Manassas Park is on the Rob-ert E. Lee Highway, only about thirty miles from Washington, and is, therefore, in close enough prox-imity to be visited annually by the thousands of tourists and visitors who come to the Federal capital. of Virginia, and is under the istinction in the Spanish-American Sons of Confederate Veterans, Associated with Major Ewing on Corporation, and Westwood Hutchin-son, president of the Bank of Manasdelivered on Sunday morning at Sas and freasurer of the Confrontation.

The Roard of Control has appointaint you?

James W Moore, D. D. paster of the corporation.

James W Moore, D. D. paster of the finance board. Dr. Owens chairman of the finance board. Dr. Owens is a past commander-in-chief of the Sons of that had been injected into the finance board. Dr. Owens is a Alumni Day.

Junta During Confederate Veterans.

COZY CORNER CLUB MEMBERS LAPSE INTO POETIC MOOD

President Lifts Ban on Last Year's Straw Lids, Whereupon Organization, in Executive Session, Nominates Its Own Candidate for Mayoralty Honors.

Major Ewing. Virginizh and High Officer in Department of the Interior, is President of Corporation. S10,000 Subscription Received.

Plans for the establishment of a Battlefield Park on the fields of First and Second Manassas have now taken definite form and a campaign has been launched to raise by subscription $1,500,000 with which to build a memorial, the equal of Gettysburg and Chickamauga.

The battlefield will be purchased, a The battlefield will be purchased, a to stable and the battlefield will be purchased, a to stable and the battlefield will be purchased, a to stable and the battlefield will be purchased, a to stable and the battlefield will be purchased. The battlefield will be purchased, a to stable and the battlefield will be purchased, a to stable and the battlefield will be purchased. The battlefield will be purchased, a to stable and the battlefield will be purchased. The battlefield will be purchased. The battlefield will be purchased. The battlefield will be purchased, a to stable and the coar supply them, whatever they are. He indicates the interior, and I hereby name the club, as a committee of the whole, to call upon him and see what's what.

Henry Sends His Regrets.

Henry Sends His heen so busy looking after visitors during the paygent, that he has been unable to attend the sessions of the club as frequently as he might expect, or words to that effect. Sam Rosendorf sends greetings from Monroe Park, where he is spiring ling, and says the weather is fine out there, and hopes to see some feel like and the clay banks of some in the c

"Come grab the line, and in the lap of spring, All thoughts of sleepless nights be Delightful thunder stoms are on the The twitting sparrow now is on the

"I love to stand beneath the shad-ing tree and watch the lightning's flash as thunder's loud alarum wakes thoughts of strolls beneath weeping willow. The sweet is but gentle sound of th' approach-ing trolley party, and dust may spread its wingless flight and rest upon the broad shoulders of happy mankind." Oft in Stilly Night.

"Oft in the stilly night," gulped lice-President Graffam, "have Vice-President Vice-President Graffam, have I stood me 'neath the o'erhanging boughs of the maple, and grabbed frantically for the frisky caterpillar as he sought rest and repose beneath

"And yet, beware the katydid at night, Who starts the bull-bat of upon his While street cur just beneath the therewith.

Window stands
To tackle orphan, canine in his part of the

"You're setting me like that too, admitted Fred Putnam, "for-

Motion to Adjourn.
"I move we adjourn," Lowled Joe

"Motion's out of order. the presi-dent ruled. "The motion to adjourn is always out of order in this club."
"Till ask Joe Powers about that."
"It ask Joe Powers about that."
"Till ask Joe Powers about that."
"Joe West retorted. "He knows some-thing about rules and regulations.
In parliamentary procedure. And if you fellows keep on spouting poetry.
"It spouted after the presi-

When I once sought to hear them spiel I went
To some swell concert at the Woman's Club.

Irritable Husband Wrecks Business and Home

Says He Was Weak, Wornout and "All In" How you may quickly help as a Result of Nerve Force worn out exhausted nerve cells, and remarkably Exhaustion increase your strength, power 4" and endurance, often in two weeks time.

EARLY COLONIAL DAYS WERE WITHOUT JAILS

Punishments Were Carried Out by Means of Stocks at Church.

CAPEVILLE EDIFICE BUILT 1690 ship, Constructed of Brick, Still Is Standing-Not in Use for By Frances L. Taylor.

CAPEVILLE, June 3.—A unique af-fair on the Eastern Shore was the open-air service held last Tuesday on from Monroe Park, some weather is spring-ing, and says the weather is fine out there, and hopes to see some of us before the season closes.

"Lee Roden writes that since they cut down the trees in Ginter Park, the north wind blows the dust in the eves of the tourists who pass in 1645 a record states that citizens should earry "arms and fixed amunition." These who failed to the order were punished.

town, then," cofmented Jesse Ladd, carry not the order were punished so the north wind, and all other by being required "to clear the paths winds, can blow some dust in the around the new church inclosed by Broad and Grace Streets."
"Them are well-spoken senti-ments," said Fred Putnam.

Foundation Still Stands.

When the brick church, the foundation of which is still standing, was

"Said Brother Frank Anthony on cestreet in front of Jack English's acc." remarked Brother Tony Lusar, "wearing an Alpine Fedora, and hat excuse do you think he gave?" "Ain't got the faintest receiber on," said Buster Brown, speaking the club, "Said it looked like rain when he ft home, and he didn't want to get is last year's straw lid wet."

Starw Lide in Years to make himself a set of stocks and Straw Lids in Vogue.

"And that reminds me," the presint said. "The ukase has been included about straw lids. It is now We find another slanderer draped apropos of the season to appear in public clothed therein. Any member who wishes a good receipt for cleaning hats, send me a self-addressed stocks as a punishment for drunken-envelope, and he will be supplied therewith.

"And now," the president went on prits than stocks the offenders stocks." pant, and when there were more cur-"And now," the president went on, we get down to the secret session with an iron put around their necks, art of the meeting. This must go The men who stole a garment stood

"You're ketting me like that too" admitted Fred Putnam, "for—

"On Chimberaze Heights 1 love to stray.

And watch the gas-house lights upon the lay:

Where Fulton nestles just below the hill:

"What's the matter with you fetlows," queried Chan Ruskell.
"Muster went to the pageant every night, to get all that inspiration, and, yet—

"When McDowell gets me at the felephone.

"When McDowell gets me at the felephone.

"On Chimberaze Heights 1 love to stray.

"If the brother doest't want to hear what we have to seg in each to session, he may retire," the president significantly remarked.

"If the brother doest't want to hear what we have to seg in this here clulk," said Jim Tresnon, "We aim't er going to be ashamed of rothing we do or say. Keep the sloves the change to say that we have to seg in this here clulk," said Jim Tresnon, "We aim't er going to be ashamed of rothing we do or say. Keep the sloves the change to say that we have to seg in this here clulk," said Jim Tresnon, "We aim't er going to be ashamed of rothing we do or say. Keep the sloves the customs of today may be different, but the same beautiful ritual was used then as was read with such feeling today. In vivid contrast was the crowd of 1,000 per
(Continued on Ninth Page.)

"CANNED GOODS

SALESMAN

Experienced canned goods sales-man wanted to represent us in Virigina and the upper portion of North Carolina. Established territory and an excellent opportion of North Carolina. Established territory and an excellent opportion of North Carolina. Established territory and an excellent opportion of North Carolina. Established territory and an excellent opportion of North Carolina. Established territory and an excellent opportion of North Carolina. Established territory and an excellent opportion of North Carolina. Established territory and an excellent opportion of North Carolina. Established territory and an excellent opportion of North Carolina. Established territory and an excellent opportion of North Carolina. Established territory and an excellent o

RECEIVES RECOGNITION FOR ESSAY ON DAVIS

Mrs. Alice S. Morrison, President of Stonewall Jackson Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, Washington, Awarded Medal for Prize-Winning Paper.

In a national contest for the best domitable willpower and great historical essay on Jefferson Davis, ly believed to be for the betterment of humanity and posterity. So lived and died the revered, believed Jefferson Davis, honored, scorned, persecuted and pitied. This great character, who wielded such a powerful influence in the stormy drama of the '60's, was a true exponent of Scotch-Irish Welsh parentage, a race of great physical and mental strength, with natures of profound courage and tenacity, in-historical essay on Jefferson Davis, only President of the Confederacy, whose natal day was celebrated throughout the South yesterday, the Orren Randolph Smith medal has been presented, through the national organization of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, by Jessica Ranfolph Smith in honor of her father, Major Orren Randolph Smith, designer of the "Stars and Bars," to Mrs, Alice L. Morrison, president of Stonewall Jackson Chapter, No. 29, U. D. C., Washington, D. C.

The prize-winning essay follows:

Great men have lived and died, each striving for a cause, which he sincerely believed to be for the betterment of humanity and poeterity. So lived and humanity and poeterity. So lived and humanity and poeterity. So lived and

LOW EXCURSION FARES

Week End Fares to "Land of the Sky"

Corresponding Low Fares to Other Destinations. On sale Friday and Saturdays. Limited returning to reach starting point prior midnight of Tuesday following date of sale.

On sale Saturday and Sundays, Return limit Monday fol-

LOW SUMMER EXCURSION FARES: On sale daily until September 30th, to California, the West and all principal mountain and seashore resorts throughout the U. S. and Canada, Limited to October 31st. Stop-over privi-

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM

809 East Main Street.

ATTENTION, READERS!

The Tremendous Demand from Our Readers Exhausts Temporarily the Supply of

(Continued on Ninth Page.)

NEW UNIVERSITIES DICTIONARY SAVE THE COUPONS

New Shipment to Arrive Shortly

Owing to the extraordinary demand of the readers of the Dispatch Papers for the New Universities Dictionary given away with three coupons and 98c, the tremendous supply has been temporarily exhausted. From every section of the city and throughout the State requests from the Dispatch Papers' readers are pouring into our offices for the New Universities Dic-

In order that all of our readers will have an opportunity of securing one of the handsomely bound New Universities Dictionaries, containing thousands of new words, additional large orders have been placed with the publishers for these Dictionaries, and we are expecting a fresh supply daily.

Watch Papers for Announcement of Distribution of New Supply

Readers, you should save the coupons which are appearing daily in the Dispatch Papers and send them in just as soon as announcement is made of the arrival of the fresh supply of

Richmond Times-Dispatch The Evening Dispatch

Richmond, Virginia.